

Steel Package Exchange Unit

Product Description

Installations steel package exchange unit is fabricated to meet level I, II or III ballistic levels to meet your specifications. The unit comes standard with a prime painted finish. Stainless steel doors, flanges and body are optional. The unit has a locking device that allows only one door to be open at a time.

Steel Finish Options:

All steel construction with prime painted finish
Steel body with stainless steel doors & flanges
All stainless steel construction
Custom painting available upon request

Recommended Uses:

- Financial Institutions
- Payment centers
- Police Stations

Benefits and Features:

- Fabricated to meet level I, II & III
- Only one door can be open at a time
- Delivered complete and ready for installation

